

My life and ministry have been transformed by the message of grace that I first learned from Classic Christianity in 1992. Just this week, one of our cell group leaders said to me, "This is the first church that I have ever been in where I am seeing lives changed. The grace message really works."

Jeff, New Jersey