

Thank you for your book, Classic Christianity. I've been a Christian for almost 25 years, and since then have lived under more bondage and despair than I did before I was a Christian. I have fought to live the successful, fulfilling Christian life, but have failed miserably time and time again. After a series of heartbreaking situations that took place in my life, and losing just about everything 5 years ago, I finally gave up. I refused to do anything with my life until it was made perfectly clear to me why I kept hitting walls. I was so tired of living the unsuccessful, unfulfilling, miserable Christian life. Finally, after 5 long years, the Lord led me to your book, Classic Christianity

. In it, you pointed me toward the truth; a truth I have never understood until now. It was so simple; I don't know why I didn't get it before.

Now, I am no longer just a Christian fighting to gain God's acceptance and approval every day. Instead, I am a saint, a child of God, fully and completely acceptable to Him just as His Son Jesus Christ, and I no longer have to fight for it. In fact, I now realize I always have been acceptable to God, but just like Mr. Yates, I just never realized it before. I AM COMPLETE!

Thank you, thank you, thank you again for being obedient to write this book. Because it has pointed me to true-truth, I have now been truly set free.
