

I have just finished Classic Christianity. I cannot tell you how much it has impacted my life. I have ordered nine copies for my fellow sisters and brothers in Christ. If I had more money, I would make sure that everyone I knew who is wrestling with some of the same errors in thinking had a copy of this liberating book.

Bob, I have been taught that the idea of “once saved, always saved” is anti-gospel. But the truth of this message rings so true in my heart. I am going back through this book in greater detail this week. The first reading had me stopping on almost every page—asking God to make the truths you developed a reality in my heart. Bob, indeed life is too short to miss the real thing. And because of Classic Christianity, I believe I won't miss it after all!
