

Refreshing, encouraging, and relevant! That's how I'd describe Classic Christianity. Thank you for sharing your life with all of us through your book. Our Lord confirmed in my heart so many things that He has made real to me in the last ten years. I guess what made your journey so meaningful to me was that it so paralleled my own experience—bold, aggressive, motivating, and yet frustrated internally—wondering why the Christian life was so hard to live. Thanks again, Bob, for your contribution to my life and to hundreds of hurting Christians who desperately need to know this message.

Tom, Georgia